Dear Sirs,
I was a full time employee for Lehman Brothers between October 2003 - May 2006.
I worked as a Multi Media Technician.
In that time I paid into the Lehman Pension scheme £50 a month.
 $30 \text{ months} \times £50 = £1500$.
I also was treated badly by Lehman Brothers in that I was denied my yearly bonus.
This was not correct and I feel that I'm owed £2000 for this point.
Apart from working daily between 6am - 6pm this was not reflected by the bank.

Kind Regards,

Gavin Aslett
